All Aboard The British Pullman

Leave London today aboard the gleaming carriages of the British Pullman, each with their own history and unique 1920s design. It's time to turn Agatha Christie as a murder is announced. A cast of suspicious characters are introduced, each embroiled in the intricate plot. Something is afoot, so keep your eyes peeled. Meanwhile, you'll be served a chilled glass of Champagne at your seat before enjoying a sumptuous five-course lunch prepared by the skilled onboard chefs. Relax and enjoy the ride, solve the crime and, if you're one of the top sleuths onboard, you'll even receive a prize!

Onboard Extras

If you're celebrating a special occasion, why not buy a unique gift for your loved one which will be waiting for you when you board the train? Gift options include the iconic Pullman teddy bear, a celebration cake, a hand-tied bunch of flowers or a pair of Pullman Champagne flutes. Just let us know if you would like to add one of these to your package. Prices available on request.

Add London Accommodation To Your Trip

If you are coming down to London from far-afield, we can add hotel accommodation before and after your trip so that you can turn your British Pullman day trip into an exciting city break! We can offer a selection of hotels near to London Victoria station as featured below, including the beautiful Grosvenor Hotel (pictured) which actually has an exit onto the station concourse. Alternatively, you might prefer to stay in a different part of the city, depending on the places you would like to visit – and your departure station back to where you live. Just give us a call and let us help tailor make your trip.

Pricing

From £535 per person

This price is based on the best fares on the British Pullman. Please note that prices increase as the train gets busier, so fares can vary quite substantially depending on the date of departure. If you travel during a peak period, particularly at short notice, then supplements may apply.
