Day 1 - Arrive Cape Town

You will be met at the airport on arrival today and taken by private transfer to the Belmont Mount Nelson Hotel (or similar) where you have a 3-night stay. Settle into your luxurious hotel and relax after your journey. There are plenty of leisure facilities to choose from, including an outdoor swimming pool and a spa, along with tempting on-site restaurants for dinner.

Days 2 & 3 - Cape Town

Spend two full days enjoying the sights of Cape Town. Not-to-be-missed attractions include Table Mountain, which is accessible by rotating cable car or on foot and offers spectacular views of the city and sea from its broad summit. You can also take a boat across Table Bay to Robben Island, where Nelson Mandela was held as a political prisoner for 18 years. Tours are offered around the island, conducted by former inmates of the prison. For shopping and dining opportunities, head to the Victoria & Alfred Waterfront where you'll find plenty of boutiques, bars and restaurants.

Day 4 - Depart Cape Town With Rovos Rail

After a leisurely breakfast this morning, make your way to Cape Town Station where you will board the train for your fantastic journey across South Africa. There's time to freshen up in your suite before meeting fellow guests in one of the lounge cars. Lunch is served in the dining cars as the train reaches Worcester in the Hex River Valley. Disembark at Matjiesfontein for an opportunity to stroll through the historic village before returning to the train for a formal dinner en route to Kimberley.

Day 5 - Aboard The Train And Stop At Kimberley

Breakfast is served in the dining cars until 10am this morning, so there's plenty of time to watch the changing landscapes pass by your window, or head to the lounge car for coffee. After lunch onboard, there will be a stop at Kimberley where guests are invited to disembark for a tour of the town, the Diamond Mine Museum and the Big Hole. Just after leaving Kimberley, there's a shallow lake on the left-hand side of the train which is often home to flocks of over 20,000 flamingos. After dinner, this evening, why not enjoy a drink with your fellow guests?

Day 6 - Arrive Pretoria

This morning, the train travels northeast through the goldfields of the Witwatersrand before arriving around noon at Rovos Rail Station in Pretoria. Make your way to your hotel, the Menlyn Boutique Hotel (or similar) for an overnight stay. There's time this afternoon to spend some time exploring South Africa's administrative capital, which is famous for its historic sites and jacaranda trees which decorate the city with a profusion of blossom in October and November.

Day 7 - Depart Pretoria

Usually, your flight home isn't until the evening, so you're free to leave your bags at your hotel today and spend another day exploring Pretoria. Your transfer driver will meet you back at the hotel and drive you to Johannesburg Airport for your flight back to the UK (not included).
