- Suggested Itinerary -

Day 1 - London To Munster

Depart London St Pancras this morning on a Eurostar service to Brussels Midi station. Then connect with German rail services train to Münster via the cathedral city of Cologne. Here, check in to the Kaiserhof Hotel (or similar) for an overnight stay. Münster is an historic university city. Its skyline is punctuated by the Gothic and Romanesque towers and steeples of its medieval churches.

Day 2 - Munster To Copenhagen

This morning, it's time to board another InterCity service to cover the 180-mile journey north to Hamburg, where you change onto a direct train to Copenhagen via Jutland. The train traverses the flat landscapes of the Danish countryside before pulling into Copenhagen's historic station in time for dinner. Your accommodation here will be the Absalon Hotel (or similar).

Days 3 & 4 -stockholm

Cross the Oresund Bridge and head through Sweden to capital Stockholm. Your home for the next 2 nights is the Nordic Light Hotel (or similar). Stockholm is a fascinating city in a stunning location. Spend your free time here discovering a wealth of museums, wandering through the historic Gamla Stan district, island hopping on foot or by ferry and experiencing a veritable smorgasbord of dining options.

Days 5 & 6 - Stockholm And Overnight To Kiruna

Enjoy another day at leisure in Stockholm. We would recommend a visit the world-famous Vasa Museum, dedicated to the 17th century warship of the same name, which sank only a few minutes into her maiden voyage in 1628. In the early evening, return to Stockholm's main station for your overnight train heading north. Settle in to your private compartment for the night and awake near the Arctic Circle. Your destination is Kiruna, where you'll check in for a 3-night stay at the Best Western Hotel Arctic Eden (or similar).

Days 7 & 8 - Kiruna

You have two full days in the town of Kiruna. Kiruna is around 100 miles north of the Arctic Circle meaning that, between around the last week of May and mid-July, you can experience the midnight sun, when the sun never sets! From the first week of December until mid-January, there are no hours of full daylight. There are plenty of activities to choose from here, whether you want to try your hand at dog-sledding, snow shoe trekking, ice fishing or riding a snowmobile! You can also take tours into breathtaking Abisko National Park or visit the Aurora Sky Station for a chance to see the unforgettable Northern Lights.

Day 9 - Kiruna To London

It's time to check out of your hotel today and transfer to Kiruna Airport for your flight back to London (not included). If you would rather not fly, we can look at options to bring you back overland, perhaps with a journey on the famous Inlandsbanan through central Sweden. Give us a call for details and prices. TMR RECOMMENDS: In the winter months, why not extend your holiday and stop a night or two in the famous Ice Hotel, located near to Kiruna?
