- Suggested Itinerary -

Day 1 - London To Zurich

Catch a Eurostar service to Paris, crossing to the Gare de Lyon and continuing your journey through eastern France to Switzerland. Arrive in Zurich and check into the conveniently located Hotel Adler (or similar) for your overnight stay. Zurich is a lovely city spanning the River Limmat where it flows into Lake Zurich. You will have time this evening to wander around the Old Town and have dinner at one of the city's many restaurants.

Day 2 - Zurich To Venice

Today is the highlight of your rail journey as you cross the Alps via the Gotthard Pass. Travel through the Italian speaking Swiss canton of Ticino, via Lake Lugano and down into Italy. On arrival into Venice Santa Lucia station, make your way to the Giorgione Hotel (or similar) for a 3-night stay. TMR RECOMMENDS: If you are happy to take the slow route, you can enjoy more mountain scenery by climbing over the Gotthard Pass rather than taking the fast base tunnel. This will require a change in Bellinzona and Milan.

Days 3 & 4 - Venice

Discover Venice over two full days. Take in the views from the top of the Campanile in St Mark's Square, cross the Bridge of Sighs on a guided tour of the Doge's Palace, visit the stunning art collections at the Accademia and Peggy Guggenheim galleries or simply find a campo to relax in, with a chilled Aperol Spritz. TMR RECOMMENDS: Extend your visit to Venice so that you have more time to explore other islands such as Murano and Burano, or the sandy beaches of the Lido.

Day 5 - Venice To Munich

Leave your hotel this morning and make your way back to the station for a spectacularly scenic rail journey which will take you across the Austrian border and through the Alps via the Brenner Pass to Munich. On arrival in Munich, check in for an overnight stay at the Eurostars Book (or similar).

Day 6 - Munich To London

After breakfast this morning, leave your hotel and make your way back to Munich's main station for a journey via Frankfurt to Brussels. On arrival, board a Eurostar for your return journey to London.
